Ceremony Information

The following information is needed so that we may cater our shooting and editing style to fit your individual needs. However, if you are not sure of a particular answer, please feel free to call our studio for help or even to make an appointment and we can go over the particulars with you.

* All Church & Synagogue Weddings

Please check for any formal rules and regulations that apply to videographers.
If the building has a balcony, please check that we are permitted to shoot from there.

Catholic Mass

Please keep in mind that we edit the mass down to allow time for other things during the day. Since most Masses are over 1 hour, leaving everything in leaves very little time for the rest of the day.

1. Most Catholic Masses are over 1 hour in length. Though we do video tape the entire Mass, we attempt to edit it down to approx. 35 minutes. We normally edit out the Eucharistic and Communion parts of the Mass.
Should we edit this out _____ or leave it in _____
2. During the Mass, for the sake of continuity, we will shorten some songs, and sometimes, some of the Homily (however, this is obviously on a one-to-one basis Dependant on the relationship of the bride & groom to the Priest.)
Should we shorten songs and Homily ? Yes _____ No _____
3. Are there any singers or instrumentalists that are relatives or friends of bride & Groom ? Yes _____ No _____ (this will help us determine how Much footage to get of individual singers, violinists, etc.)
4. Will there be any special events immediately after the ceremony?
(doves, butterflies, bubbles, bells, fireworks, etc.)

5. We try to get several shots during the ceremony from the balcony, if there is one.
Please check with your church if our cameraman is allowed in the balcony. Several churches have choir directors who ban anyone from the balcony. It's always good to check this out ahead of time. Our cameramen will, as always, stay out-of-the-way, and will not obstruct the view of the organist or any other church personnel.

Jewish Ceremonies

1. Will there be a Ketubah signing? Yes _____ No _____
2. Has the Rabbi set any rules or regulations regarding the videographer?
Yes _____ No _____
If yes, please explain

4. Will there be a Crowning at the reception? Yes _____ No _____
6. Aside from the Best Man Toast, will there be any other speeches or toasts by Other friends or relatives? Yes _____ No _____
 (Our Cameramen work hand-in-hand with the bandleaders or DJ's so that they are ready for anything that may come up, but it's always better to be over prepared).

Editing Style

To keep our tapes in line with people's tastes, we have established 2 editing styles from which you can choose. Please check off which you would prefer. Once the tape is completed, changes can only be made at additional costs.

Standard Style

The editing will include all of the graphics and special effects to enhance the tape and make it more enjoyable. Slow-motion/black & white, various colorful transitions are used throughout the reception, lower third titles to introduce interviews.

We can also add Hollywood OSCAR shots during the introductions or movie clips such as "animal house" during the song shout. These are done on a request basis only.

Non-Graphic

The editing will be very low-key with just dissolves between the scenes, no logos, no graphics except for the beginning and end.

The Songs for the Soundtrack

Please circle 12 songs from the following list. The list is quite extensive, as we try to cover all tastes in music. However, if there is a song you would like that is not listed, we will need you to supply it on CD. (all CD's are returned). If you skip to below the music list, you will see suggestions for what we think fit for the different sections of the video.

If you submit a cd with songs that we don't have, please title the songs and track numbers so that we know what is on the disk.

About the Music

Please keep in mind, we want to personalize the beginning and end of the video to match your personality. But some songs, usually rock & rap won't fit as well as another choice that could be just as sentimental to the both of you, but fits the feel of the video better. Most of the beginning and ending is slow motion, with softer type video clips, so softer and slower music usually gives a more tailored feel.
